STRONG PROTEST AGAINST GAS TANK

MOVE OF P. G. AND E. CO. TO ERECT RECEPTACLE ON WASHINGTON STREET COMBATTED.

As a Board of Equalization the City Counil Makes no Change in Assessment Roll.

The City Council met Monday forenoon to equalize the taxes and to transact other business. Three of the members were present—Geo. A. Deleau, H. C. Tuchsen and Edword Sampson. The former presided.

A delegation of citizens, accompanied by James T. O'Keefe as spokesman, appeared before the board and presented the following petition in opposition to the erection of a gas receiver by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company on Washington street:

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Town of Redwood City: Gentlemen—We the undersigned residents of Redwood City, California, protest against the maintenance of a gas tank at the corner of Washington and East Marshall streets in Redwood City. We are opposed to the erection and maintenance of such a tank at this point for the reason that it is not only dangerous but detrimental to the property holders in that vicinity. This is a strictly residential section and a menace of this kind will deter the further building of homes there.

The petition was signed by one hundred and one citizens, the greater number being property owners.

It was agreed to postpone action on the company's application until the regular meeting next Monday evening.

Richard Schellins objected to the assessed value of his twenty-five-foot lots at $100. It was explained that the board had agreed to place the minimum valuation of such property at $100, making no distinction between twenty-five and fifty-foot lots, hence the assessment could not be changed.

Palo Alto will be the scene of the annual fall flower show of the Menlo Park Horticultural Society on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 23, 24, 25. The affair will be taken to Palo Alto this fall because of the better conveniences that can be obtained there and because of the opportunity that it will give to Stanford University and other peninsula folk to see what kind of flowers are grown on the peninsula.

TWO PIONEER FAMILIES UNITED IN MARRIAGE

In the marriage of Oscar Orchard and Carrie L. Goodwin in San Francisco August 5th, are represented two of the oldest pioneer families. Wm. Lasswell of this city, the bride's father, came to California in 1852 and has been a resident of San Mateo county over sixty years. Mr. Orchid's parents crossed the plains to California the same year but went to Oregon, settling near Portland. The couple will spend a few weeks in Portland and Seattle

Contributed.

We appeal to the loyalty af every son and daughter of San Mateo county to the end that on August 25th we give rousing support to our own candidate for Governor, William C. Ralston, whose boyhood and early manhood was spent in our midst.

No man ever did more to exploit or advertise our county than did his father, Mr. Wm. C. Ralston, the foremost citizen of this state, who entertained in his Belmont home the world's most famous men and women, who in turn carried to the ends of the earth the fame of California's hospitality and the beauty of her scenery It was an invariable rule with Mr. Ralston that everything possible used at Belmont be purchased in this county.

Wm. C. Ralston the son has been a credit to that honored father and to our county. His life and convictions have been as an open book, and as he has risen step by step to positions of honor and trust we have been glad to know and realize that adversity has only enriched a character that in youth promised much.

His first public office was that of Appraiser of the port of San Francisco, then to the Assembly, then State Senator in 1903, where he introduced, among many other bills that are now good laws, a constitutional amendment granting equal sufirage to women. This was the first equal suffrage bill introduced in this state and Mr. Ralston headed the fight for women on the floor of the Senate. At that time it was an unpopular measure and was eventually defeated after one of the hardest battles ever waged in the legislature of the state, but the women of California owe a debt of lasting gratitude to Mr. Ralston, as he was the first legislator to take up their fight for the ballot.

In 1907 Mr. Ralston was appointed Assistant Treasurer of U. S. at San Francisco and held office until change of administration; but we feel that if we are loyal he will be our next Governor.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

For U. S. Senator,
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE.
For Governor,
JOHN D. FREDERICKS.

Frank Jordan has done well. Re-elect him.

Chas. D. Swan would make an ideal State Treasurer. Vote for him.

When voting on the 25th, put an X after the name of A. J. Cloud for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Sam Shortridge has earned your vote for Senator. He has served the Republican party for many years and has never asked for anything before. Boost for him.

Should we care to prognosticate we would pick John D. Fredericks as the next Governor. We are not prophets nor the son of a prophet, but with our eyes shut we can see the signs which portend his election

Al. Lowe's friends—and he has them in every part of the county—are making a hard fight for his election to the office of county auditor. That he would make an efficient officer no one acquainted with his capabilities will question.

A vote for A. McSweeney for tax collector means a vote for a man who has demonstrated his efficiency. At no time in the history of the county has that office been conducted with a better regard for the interests of the public. This is an office in which the taxpayer can afford to take no chances.

If there is any truth in the old adage that it is dangerous to swap horses while crossing a stream, J. V. Neuman should certainly be kept in office as county surveyor for another term. With the extensive construction of our new highway system now under process, the county cannot afford to lose his services until this work is completed.

If a man may be judged by his past record it certainly must be admitted that Bob Chatham is well qualified for the office of Sheriff. During the term he served in that office he certainly "made good" in the fullest acceptance of that term. Without the least attempt at a show of bravado he went about his duties with courage and justice, meeting every demand of the office. When duty called he was ever ready to respond, bringing to its execution good judgment and a determination to deal justly with all.

San Mateo county can hardly afford to take the risk of introducing new fads and fancies into the office of county assessor. For this reason there should be no question as to the retention of C. D. Hayward. Years of service have demonstrated beyond question that he is fully quaified for the work with which he has been intrusted. With a continuation of present conditions there can be no question that every owner of property, either large or small, will receive just consideration in the determination of the valuation of his property.

At no time during the incumbency of H. O. Heiner has the conduct of the office of county recorder been questioned. Never at any time has there been the least complaint of the manner in which he has conducted the business. Not alone has the work been so systematized that all documents passing through the office have been handled with the minimum of delay, but the fees of the office have been made a source of profit to the county. Certainly there should be no question about the retention of an official with a record like this.

While there is of course no question as to the re-election of P. P. Chamberlain as county treasurer, his friends, and they are legion, are determined his majority at the primary shall be a decisive one. This is an endorsement which Mr. Chamberlain well deserves at the hands of the voters of San Mateo county, not only as an official but as a citizen. A pioneer resident and business man, the county owes much of its present splendid reputation to his efforts. When the existence of the nation was in danger and she called upon her sons to risk their lives in her defense, Mr. Chamberlain was ready to respond and cheerfully offered the sacrifice. When, in evil life, his fellow citizens were in need of aid or encouragement he was equally ready with his response to civic duty.

Dr. H. G. Plymire, the candidate for coroner and public administrator, is certain of re-election to the office he has so acceptably filled for the past two terms. He is known and liked by nearly every resident of this section, and while he has a pleasant personality he is not banking on his popularity but is seeking re-election on his record as a painstaking official and the fact that his experience in one of the most important positions in the county is of value to the people. For eight years he has done his duty quietly and unostentatiously and has endeavored to treat everone fairly. How well he has succeeded is attested by his re-election to the office for the second time. He comes before the people this year asking for another term, and reports from all parts of the county are to the effect that his appeal will not be in vain.

WOODSIDE AND PORTOLA

A. L. Lowe, the popular candidate for auditor was here during the week. He has made a thorough canvass of this district and all indications are that he will carry Woodside and vicinity by an overwhelming vote.

Samuel M. Shortridge, the Republican candidate for United States Senator, will be given a splendid vote in this section. Everyone here regardless of party affiliation, is going to vote for him.

James McDonnell leaves next Monday with a string of blooded mares, stallions and yearlings, forty in all, for Sheepshead Bay, New York, where they will be sold at auction. This consignment will be the last shipped from the Ormondale stock farm, for only a few horses remain and they will be kept on the place. The passing of the old stock farm is a matter of deep regret among the old residents here.

FROM THE COAST SIDE.

James Wood, an esteemed resident of the coast side, died at the home of Mrs. Sears at Halfmoon Bay last Friday morning.

D. Simmos, for the past twenty-five years a resident of the coast side, died at Halfmoon Bay last Wednesday. Deceased was a native of Portugal and was highly esteemed by his neighbors.

A Republican rally was held in Halfmoon Bay Thursday evening. The chairman of the evening was Carl Wagner of Miramar. There was not a very large attendance. All the speakers spoke kindly of Samuel M. Shortridge. The meeting was practically a Keesling meeting. it was non-partisan as to the local candidates. The other speakers were Gen W. H. H. Hart, candidate for Attorney General, A. B. Johnson, Jas. T. O'Keefe and Bob Chatham, the latter being the only local candidate present. There was tremendous applause when the names of Judge Buck and Franklin Swart were mentioned, which indicated that these gentlemen would receive all the coast votes. While the meeting was not attended very largely, yet there was considerable enthusiasm. The coastside has taken up the fight of Samuel Shortridge for United States Senator. He practically has no opposition.

SAN MATEO AND BURLINGAME.

The ladies in charge of the fancy booth at the bazaar to raise funds for the building fund of the new Catholic hall, will give a card party next Tuesday evening in Masonic hall. Pretty prizes have been selected by the ldaies for the winners at the card game. A good time is assured all. Come and enjoy yourself.

Charles Hatch, a well known pioneer of this place, is at death's door. He is sinking rapidly. No hope is held out for his recovery. Mr. Hatch has been ill for some time with an incurable malady.

Whereas: the office of Coroner and Public Administrator of a county is best served by a physician and surgeon and

Whereas we find that the office of Coroner and Public Administrator of San Mateo County has been well and efficiently conducted under its present administration:

Now, therefore be it resolved that it is the sense of this Society that we heartily endorse the reelection of the present incumbent, Dr. H. G Plymire, to the office of Corner and Public Administrator of this county.

A Commuter's Opinion.

Editor Times-Gazette—Dear Sir: I have read with considerable interest the correspondence by "Stranger" of Menlo Park in the last issue of the Redwood City Democrat. I was forcibly struck with the idea he advanced as to the endorsement of Judge Buck for the Superior Court by the Bar Association of San Mateo county. The thought did not occur to me before, and I am convinced that "Stranger" is right, and his suggestion should be followed by every commuter not knowing the respective candidates for the Superior bench. I, like my fellow commuters from Burlingame, am always anxious to know something about the candidates we are going to vote for. Most of us, however, know all the local attorneys and know all of them to be gentlemen of integrity, and having had business, more or less, with them we should be, and are governed, to a certain extent, by their recommendation and endorsement. For that reason I am going to vote for Judge Buck. These attorneys certainly know the qualifications of the judge before whom they practice, and as I gain from "Stranger's" correspondence that Judge Buck has been on the bench for a number of years, he must therefore be known to a wide circle of of citizens of San Mateo county. It would be a good idea, Mr. Editor, if you would publish the resolution adopted by the Bar Association endorsing Judge Buck for the Superior Bench, I am sure that many of us would appreciate it. I am a subscriber to your valuable paper, and it is for that reason that I write you these few lines, giving you my views as a commuter of Burlingame.

I remain Yours very respectfully, BURLINGAME COMMUTER.

W. H. Underhill, the popular auditor and a candidate for re-election, is receiving encouragement from all sections of the county. He is assured of his usual big vote at the primary election on August 25th. Mr. Underhill has a great many friends throughout the county who are working hard for his re-election and they say he will be the successful cnadidate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hughes with their son, Charles Jr., were in Redwood during the week calling on friends. GRAMMAR SCHOOL WILL OPEN MONDAY

FOUR NEW TEACHERS HAVE BEEN ENGAGED FOR COMING YEAR'S WORK.

Kindergarten Instruction For the Little Ones—Competent Teacher in Manual Training.

The grammar school will open Monday next under unusually favorable auspices.

After some six months' search and correspondence with leading institutions, including Columbia University and Menomonie Institute, and with many applicants, the grammar school principal has been able to present to the board of trustees the name of John Gill as meeting their requirements. Mr. Gill's technical training in carpentry and cabinet making in England qualify him to meet the demands of the Commissioner of Industrial Education, Dr. Snyder, for vocational work, while his recent schooling in this country qualifies him for the more cultural side of manual training. Mr. Gill will give his classes a thorough course in mechanical drawing, preparatory to their work in the shop.

The new sixth grade teacher, Miss Elizabeth Roe, declined the principalship of a small high and grammar school to accept the Redwood City position. She is especially strong in language work and grammar.

One of the popular teachers, Miss Gertrude Beeger, has requested a leave of absence for rest and study. Miss Beth Durham will teach Miss Beeger's class during her absence.

Mrs. Thorpe, after a successful year with the fifth grade, returns to her fourth grade class. Miss Edna Goulard has been chosen to teach the fifth grade, she having declined re-election to the fifth grade of the Emerson school at Lodi at an increased salary. Miss Goulard is one of the Chico Normal school's best graduates and has university summer school work to her credit. She is especially strong in arithmetic and penmanship.

By the terms of her agreement, the new kindergarten teacher, who is an experienced play ground supervisor, will assist in the grammar school play-ground in the afternoons. She will give especial attention to tennis and other games and stimulate the interest in playground activities.

This year, credits will be given for home work and an attractive certificate will be awarded for the reading of a certain number of good books at home.

The new toilet system will be completed on time, notwithstanding reports to the contrary and will give the school one of the best on the coast, surpassing in its appointments those in some of the handsome new school houses around the bay. This is but another proof that the Board is determined in everything, to give the school the best that can be obtained.

Patrons are requested to enter new pupils as early in the term as possible and to bring their vaccination and birth certificates.

Those desiring to enter children in the kindergarten are requested to bring them to the school office at 2 p. m. next Monday. The kindergarten age is four and one-half to six years, the children to be four and one-half by November 6th of this year.

Children to be received in the receiving class should be six years of age before November 6, 1914.

JAILER MADE A LIFE PRISONER BY CUPID

Deputy Sheriff Oliver J. Parker, who has charge of the county jail, was captured and made a life prisoner Monday by Archer D. Cupid, the famous love sleuth and matchmaker. Miss Rosa Keefe, the pretty and talented daughter of Mrs. William Hall of Daly City, assisted materially in placing the jailer behind the matrimonial bars.

Parker and Miss Keefe, whose engagement was announced some time ago, Monday slipped quietly away to San Francisco, obtained a marriage license and were wedded in the courtroom of Judge Shortall. In securing the license, both gave their ages as 25.

Mr. Parker is a son of Constable James Parker of the First township and before accepting the position of jailer in Rdewood City, lived with his parents at Daly City. His bride resided in Daly City with her mother, who is the wife of a well known sea captain.

Mr. Parker has purchased a cozy bungalow on Garden street in Daly City where he and his bride will make their home.

Woodside Resident Injured.

James Hulsart of Woodside, who was driving on the Mountain road near Byrnes store with his wife and child Sunday was run into by an automobile driven by K. Psalida, a San Francisco merchant. The buggy was wrecked and Hulsart painfully hurt. The driver of the machine kept on his way without offering assistance to the occupants of the buggy. He was afterwards arrested by Officer Fred Vallejo and will have to answer to a serious charge. Hulsart is in the San Mateo hospital

IRISH VOLUNTEERS.

BY REQUEST

Arise you gallant young Irishmen and ring the land with cheers!
Hurrah! hurrah! at last we have found the Irish Volunteers!
And every man who loves his land with rifle forth he will go
For Erin's laws and Home Rule cause against the Orange foe.

O! Carson thought his Ulster bluff would Irishmen dismay
But now we have a brighter and better day,
For Munster men, Leinster men and Connaught men are here
Already fit for action in the Irish Volunteers.

T o long we were trampled under foot, insulted and belied,
But an Irishman can stop that with a rifle by his side;
And if it is fight they want begob from Bombay to Cape Clear,
They will find the hardest nuts to crack are the Irish Volunteers.

So hearty lads of Erin join the National Brigade;
Take every hill and out the drill and never be afraid
For you never know what other foe you will meet in future years,
But keep the foe subdued at home, brave Irish Volunteers.

Down with Carson and their brawling crowd, their day of power is o'er,
Although it took some hundred years, it's broken for ever more;
Bad luck go with ascendency, it died without a tear
Emmett shed his blood for Ireland boys, success to the Volunteers.

Hurrah again for the National cause—the cause that cannot die;
For coffins, ships, gibbets, starvation they did try,
But we will tell to England straight, let her bend her mind to hear,
Our National spirit she can't break while there is an Irish Volunteer.

So Irish men and Irish boys join the ranks, and join them soon,
And please God you will see us marching to the Raising of the Moon;
We will have Home Rule for Ireland in spite of Carson gang of Peers,
And our liberty we will maintain by the Irish Volunteers.

'Pacific Service' makes Ironing Easy

The old drugery of ironing day is done away with in the home that has "Pacific Service."

It is no longer necessary to keep the old fashioned irons hot and the cook stove at a red heat.

With "Pacific Service" in your home, the ironing can be done in any room that may be desired. After attaching the wire of the electric iron to the lamp socket, simply turn the electric button and the iron becomes hot.

YOU WILL NEVER REGRET BUYING AN ELECTRIC IRON.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES OF MENLO PARK

Intererting Paragraphs of General Interest Gathered About the Town

The wedding of a well-known gentleman of this place and a prominent club woman of Redwood City, is the very latest gossip.

Have you subscribed for "The Daily Clatter" yet? The editions will be limited. Wake up.

Mrs. W. B. Weir and young son have gone to Shasta Springs for a vacation of three weeks.

Mrs. Allan Diamond of San Francisco is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shartridge.

Miss Ada Johannsen, a prominent young lady of Napa, is here on a visit to her cousins, the Misses Kuck.

The John Bruners have closed their pretty home at Atherton and have gone to Shasta Springs for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McKarley of San Francisco have taken apartments at the Menlo Park hotel for the remainder of the summer.

The Walter Linforth home has been leased to Mr. Brandenstein for a year. The Linforths will not vacate the place until the latter part of September.

Mrs. F. P. Roach and her three children left Thursday for Reno Nevada, to spend three weeks with her brother, J. B. Lynch, who is the superintendent of the attractive grounds of the State University.

The candidates for district attorney, auditor and sheriff are very anxious to meet the ladies in charge of the Catholic church bazaar at Menlo. Sure, there's a voting contest on.

Two large sacks of sand were hauled to Atherton Wood in a certain Buick machine this Friday morning. Are the ladies going to add sand-bags to their many other methods of extracting coin?

Mrs. C. T. Maloney gave a children's party last Sunday at her home on Pine street, in honor of the fifth birthday of her son John The little ones had a delightful time and they will long remember the occasion.

Elliott Selzer was here during the week on a visit to his mother. He was accompanied by Dr. Stevens of Red Bluff. Mr. Selzer is a prominent druggist of that place and is infatuated with the northern part of the state.

Wild ducks are coming down from the north in large flocks to the local marshes. This is a sure indication of an early season and a wet one. The flight of the birds is an unusually early one and signs point to an early rainy season.

The free carnival that came to town Tuesday has enlivened the village, bringing joy to the little ones who enjoy the hobby horses, ferris wheel, etc. The managers of the concern are doing all they can to please the public and give value for their money. The carnival will close tomorrow evening.

J. B. Howell has leased the D. A. Dorn home near the Sacred Heart Academy for a year. The place is one of the attractive residences of the peninsula. Mrs. Howell is a daughter of Mrs. Wales, wife of Major Wales of this place. She was only recently married to Mr. Howell.

Tuesday night, the second time in six mnoths, the store of Duff & Doyle was broken into and robbed. As was done at the previous robbery, the thieves entered the building by forcing the rear door. They helped themselves to cash amounting to $8 and a lot of valuable merchandise. Sheriff Mansfield has been notified and has issued circulars giving a description of the stolen goods When the store was last burglarized the thieves carried away a similar lot of goods. The sheriff sent out circulars and the robbers, two young men, were caught at Stockton when they reached that city and were negotiating the sale of their loot. They were returned to Redwood City and admitted their guilt.

A fire started in the basement of the Sharon residence about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. An alarm was turned in by the employes of the place and the Menlo Park fire department responded at once. After two hours of hard work the flames were put out, after about $10,000 damages had been done. Only the quick response of the fire boys saved the building that cost Mr. Sharon in the neighborhood of $75,000. The building was being painted and the workmen in leaving that evening placed paint wet rags, etc. in the basement and it is supposed instantaneous combustion caused the blaze. The Sharons were not at home at the time, the place being in charge of the employes. Too much credit cannot be given the fire department for its efforts in saving the building. It is understood that Mr. Sharon will donate a neat sum to fire boys and that the department will be recognized.

The originality and attractiveness of the Push-Cart Fair to be held this Saturday afternoon in the gardens of Mr. Edward Eyre have caught the fancy and fired the enthusiasm of the whole peninsula. The beauty of the gardens, the charm of the hostess and the variety of the afternoon's program have proved a lure that promises to attract an overwhelming attendance. The ladies in charge have had an extremely busy week sectioning the gardens, throwing out streamers, decorating and loading the carts and of course feverishly planning their costumes. It is to be hoped these last will not so dazzle the guests that the saleable articles cannot be seen. The mothers of this end of the peninsula, it is said, have a new bugbear with which to discipline the children these days. Johnny and Mary are as prompt in their obedience, as eager to run errands and mother as attentive and affectionate to mother as if it were the week before Christmas. Johnny and Mary are looking forward to Saturday afternoon. By the way, in response to numerous requests, the ladies have arranged to have an automobile service between Menlo Park, Atherton station and the grounds. From Menlo Park the trip one way will be 15c, round trip 25c. Orders may be left at Seal's garage, Riley's store and Maloney's livery. The festival will be open at 2 o'clock and close at 6. The admission will be, adults 25c and children over twelve 10c.

A clever baseball writer has remarked that the European war relegated the Mexican war to the Bush league. A similar situation is had just now at this end of the peninsula. A week or so ago the whole extitement here was the political campaign. Just now the campaign is lost sight of completely and the candidates are making desperate efforts to become identified with the prevailing attraction before the public—the carnival bazaar to be held in the Hall of the Nativity, Menlo Park next week, the preliminary and introduction to which is the much talked of Push-Cart Fair at Atherton Woods this Saturday afternoon. The bazaar opens on Thursday evening, August 20th and will continue through three evenings. The ladies in charge are filled with a spirit of novelty this year. Not satisfied with the attractive innovation they have furnished in the preliminary Push-Cart Fair, they have planned a complete surprise in the arrangement and manner of conducting the bazaar. This they insist though, is to be a surprise and therefore must be kept secret at present. Two of the special features, however, outside the ladies' plans are a revival of that very clever and amusing daily paper, "The Clatter." The advance sheets will be out Monday. Look for it. You may be in it. At any rate it will have some surprise items on the bazaar. The second feature, the one that has them all excited is the candidates' straw vote contest. Saturday evening, August 22 will be candidates' night. The voting contest, though, will be inaugurated on Thursday evening. At present the close contests promise to be in the fights for the district attorney's office, the auditorship, and the sheriff's office. The friends of the various candidates for these offices are already very active in lining up their forces. The result of this straw vote contest is looked upon as practically deciding the primary election at least at this end of the peninsula.

Sheehan's Friends Boosting.

One of the strongest arguments to be urged in favor of the successful campaign now being waged by Micheal Sheehan for the office of sheriff of San Mateo county is the attitude taken by his many friends throughou this county. At a meeting recently held by representatives from the various cities and towns it was determined that the elevation of Mr. Sheehan to a higher post in office was but a fitting recognition of his long and conscientious service as a peace and probation officer.

He being specially qualified for the duties which are incumbent upon the duties of sheriff it is felt that it would be a serious loss to the county if through any misunderstanding or neglect Mr. Sheehan should be defeated. And to the end and purpose of electing Mr. Sheehan this committee has formed itself into a working unit to see that the sheriff's office shall be occupied by one who has those necessary qualifications to discharge efficiently his duties.

It can be said that this committee has been guaranteed by Mr. Sheehan that when he is elected he will not employ any of his relatives and that his deputies will only be those who are capable of discharging the duties of their particular positions, discharging them with efficiency, business acumen and courtesy to the citizenship at large.

CAPT. JOHN D. FREDERICKS

REDWOOD WELCOMES FREDERICKS

Enthusiastic Greeting Extended to Popular Republican Candidate for Governor

One of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings that has ever greeted a candidate for office in Redwood City, turned out Thurdsay evening to hear John D. Fredericks, the Republican candidate for governor. Long before the time scheduled for the meeting, the Bell theater was filled to the doors, there being scarcely standing room left when Mr. Fredericks made his appearance. D. E. O'Keefe called the following vice presidents to the platform: Charles N. Felton, Roy W. Cloud, P. P. Chamberlain, John Pooue, C. D. Haydock, and John D. Gish, after which he introduced Mr. Cloud as chairman. Mr. Cloud in a well times and well delivered speech paid a glowing tribute to the Republican party and urged his hearers to support and vote Captain John D. Fredericks for governor, saying that he was the best equipped, both by education and training for the position. His reference to Mr. Fredericks brought forth tremendous applause. Mr. Fredericks was greeted with prolonged hand clapping. In a pleasing manner he thanked the people of Redwood City for their kindly greeting and encouragement. Mr. Fredericks spoke for an hour and a half, holding the attention of his hearers closely to the end of his masterly address. The candidate said that he was making every effort to secure the nomination, but if any of the other three aspirants for governor receive the coveted prize he would be the first to take off his coat and work for the successful candidate. This statement was roundly applauded both by the men and women of the big audience. Mr. Fredericks eloquently told of the past achievements of the Republican party, the good deeds performed by its leaders in the past fifty years and the praiseworthy laws enacted by Congress during the many years that party was in power. He flayed the Johnston administration for claiming all the credit for enactment of the good roads law, Workingmen's Compensation act, etc. He said those laws were begun by a Republican legislature and only amended by the progressives Mr. Fredericks was eloquent in speaking of the benefits of the tariff and showed the ruin that would be wrought by the present tariff on California products. Mr. Frederick's peroration was eloquent, effective and well timed. The audience was in an uproad of applause as Mr. Frdeerick's took his seat. The candidate made a fine impression by his address, making many votes and securing a number of boosters for his cause. Among those who greeted him after the meeting was Senator Charles N. Felton who congratulated him and expressed his confidence in his ability to defeat Hiram Johnston for the govornorship at the November election. Mr. Fredericks departed yesterday for San Jose but before leaving was greeted atthe Sequoia hotel by the leading citizens of Redwood City who believe he will be the next governor of the State of California.

Seeley Develops Strength.

George E. Seely, who will undoubtedly be the next Justice of the Third township, holds the unique position of being the best known "unknown" candidate in the field of San Mateo county politics. For the past 17 weeks he has been making a house to house canvass during the early evening hours, in consequence of being employed during the day, and in his interviews he impresses the electors as being a highly intelligent young man, a man of strong courage and convictions, and possessing a code of ethics that are at once positive and convincing. He has made his "search" a thorough one, the result being that he knows more people than the old timers ever contemplated. Mr. Seely was born in the National metropolis and through an unfortunate turn of affairs was thrown upon his own resources, the result which gave him an insight on the bright and shady side of life sufficientiy to know men and rationally judge them. As to his ability to perform the functions of the office aspired to, 'tis said that he has burned the "midnight oil" for thepast four years studying the elements of law. Regarding the proceedure of the justice court, he wishes to state that the intent will supersede the act, and that he advocates probation in the matters of first offenders, especially in juvenile cases, and above all he will take into consideration the thousand and one extenuating circumstances that go to make up a case and rule accordingly, with a view of giving justice as the word is defined. He sincerely believes that there is hidden in the average unfortunate breast a spark of appreciation and native goodness, and that a dignified application of the "square deal" will kindle that dormant spark into a flame of better citizenship, and prove a valuable asset to the community and humanity in general.

Support Promised Gym.

The following officers were elected at a public meeting at the Horace Hawes Gymnasium on last Wednesday evening, and it was decided to organize those present as an athletic association:. Chairman, Rev. David Crabtree; vice president, Lisle Winter; secretary-treasurer, S. P. McCrea. Added to those will be found a board of directors, several of whom will be women, to be elected at a future meeting. In order to provide funds to begin work the following subscriptions of five dollars were then made and have since been made:. D. E. Graham, C. E. Cumberson, David Crabtree, S. P. McCrea, J. J.
